

Agenda to follow soon, topics include...

- Creating a sustainable future: Architecture's role in tackling climate change
- The Global Housing Crisis and Homelessness
- Managing developments in a dynamic global market – how are events like global supply chain issues, impacting the future of city buildings
- The impact that AI will have on design and the design professions, and how we must respond
- Designing, constructing and operating a smart building: considerations around safety, comfort, security, energy and the overall atmosphere
- How do we ensure that free movement of skills does not impact on collaboration between the construction industries in the EU and UK?
- Emerging trends & future predictions for building façade
- Urban development - assessing the impact to achieve sustainable buildings
- The role of buildings in improving functional health – how can developments actively improve the well-being of users
- The challenge that the Home Working phenomenon imposes on the continued vibrancy of city centre office areas
- The ongoing impact of the continued war in Ukraine, and a vision for peace, as well as how the continued conflict is affecting the global economy